

What animals & how many you can have in town areas

Animal	Flat/ Unit	Allotment up to 1 acre (4046.86m ²)	Allotment 1 acre (4046.86m ²) to 2.5 acres (10,117.14m ²)	Allotment 2.5 acres (10,117.14m ²) or greater	Allotment 5 acres (20,234.28m ²) or greater	Special considerations - no limit on allotment size
Horse Kept in Urban Areas within Balonne Shire Towns (St George and Rural Towns). There are no distinctions between sizes of horses.	0	1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Private use Permit Must meet conditions for keeping of horses within town area 	3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Private use Permit Must meet conditions for keeping of horses within town area 	5 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Private use Permit Must meet conditions for keeping of horses within town area 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commercial use Permit for land use, not individual horse permit Submit tax statement with application Approval by full Council Meeting
Sheep/Alpaca/Llama 	0	0	2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal 	10 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Vet care with certificate Drought care - authorisation by BSC/ declaration Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal
Goat 	0	0	0	0	0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Vet care with certificate Drought care - authorisation by BSC/ declaration Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal
Cattle/Cow 	0	0	0	0	0	St George & Rural Towns Mapped Town Area <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Under vet care with certificate Under drought care Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal

There are also minimum standards for keeping certain animals. These standards are to reduce domestic animals impacting residential amenity, creating noise and odours, causing environmental harm and creating a public safety risk.

What animals & how many you can have in town areas

Animal	Flat/Unit	Allotment up to 1 acre (4046.86m ²)	Allotment 1 acre (4046.86m ²) to 2.5 acres (10,117.14m ²)	Allotment 2.5 acres (10,117.14m ²) or greater
Poultry - Ducks - Geese - Chickens - Guinea Fowl - Turkeys 	0	12 (Total number poultry in any combination) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal 	24 (Total number poultry in any combination) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal 	50 (Total number poultry in any combination) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refer to standard conditions for keeping of an animal Permit required for more than 50 - Application for Permit - Assessment by full Council Meeting
Rooster 	0	0	0	0
Emu/Ostrich/Peacock	0	0	0	0
Honey Bees 	0	1-2 hives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit and approval by Council Refer to conditions on keeping bees 	More than 2 hives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Application and assessment by full Council Meeting Refer to conditions on keeping bees
Pig 	0	0	0	0
Stallion 	Prohibited in all town areas unless under special conditions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Vet care and certificate Double fenced Defined conditions
Bull/Ram	Prohibited in all town areas unless under special conditions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permit Vet care and certificate
Cat	1	>1

There are also minimum standards for keeping certain animals. These standards are to reduce domestic animals impacting residential amenity, creating noise and odours, causing environmental harm and creating a public safety risk.